Dear Mr Hyland

Freedom of Information Request Reference FOI-1099229

Thank you for your request dated 22 September 2017 in which you asked the Department of Health (DH):

"Freedom of Information request - List of Type 1, 2 and 3 emergency care departments

I am seeking a comprehensive list of type 1, 2 and 3 emergency care departments across the UK. I would appreciate the list including the address of each department. I am aware that you may only be able to supply those that are within England."

Your request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

DH holds no information relevant to your request.

NHS Digital holds (and publishes) lists of NHS trusts in England in various formats, and including different information. It is therefore possible that NHS Digital may hold some information within the scope of your request, and we suggest that you direct your request there. NHS Digital can be contacted at enquiries@nhsdigital.nhs.uk.

Please note that the above information is for England only. Details of how to contact the health administrations of Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland are available here:

Wales: <http://wales.gov.uk/topics/health/?lang=en>

Scotland: <http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Topics/Health>

Northern Ireland: <http://www.dhsspsni.gov.uk/index.htm>

If you are not satisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to appeal by asking for an internal review. This should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the address at the top of this letter, or the email address at the end of this letter.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of your internal review, you may complain directly to the Information Commissioner (ICO) who may decide to investigate your concerns. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have already appealed our original response, and received our internal review response. The ICO will not usually investigate concerns where there has been an undue delay in bringing it to their attention. You should raise your concerns with them within three months of your last meaningful contact with us.

The ICO can be contacted at:
