11th January 2016

Dear Nath,

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – RFI20160005, RFI20160006 & RFI20160007

Thank you for your requests under the Freedom of Information Act ('the Act') of 2nd January 2016.

Please be advised that in order for a request to be valid under the Act, it must be submitted under the real name of the applicant. The ICO provides guidance on how to make a valid request, found under "what are the legal requirements for a request" at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/official-information/>. Please kindly provide a full name so that your requests can be considered.

Kind regards

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow SK9 5AF. Telephone 01625 545 745 or see <http://www.ico.gov.uk/>

However, please note that the Information Commissioner may choose not to consider your appeal, because as stated in the guidance, requests involving known pseudonyms cannot be the subject of a valid complaint to the Information Commissioner under section 50 of the FOIA.

Yours sincerely,

BBC Information Rights
