Dear Mr Gregory

Request for Information – RFI20161499

I write in relation to your request of 24th July 2016 under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act') seeking the information below. Please accept my apologies for the delay in responding to you.

"In my original request email dated 2nd Jan I asked "Please furnish me with a copy of the Monthly Performance Pack for the last 3 years and also the 10 day report." I expected this to include year Apr 2015 - May 2016 which is the most recent year. Please could you provide this information and let me know why this wasn't included when it was requested?"

Please note that "TV Licensing" is a trade mark used by companies contracted by the BBC to administer the collection of television licence fees and enforcement of the television licensing system. The majority of the administration of TV Licensing is contracted to Capita Business Services Ltd ('Capita'). Over-the-counter services are provided by PayPoint plc ('PayPoint') in the UK, and by the Post Office in the Isle of Man and Channel Islands. Marketing and printing services are contracted to Proximity London Ltd. Media services are contracted to Havas Media. The BBC is a public authority in respect of its television licensing functions and retains overall responsibility.

In my initial response to you of 18th August, I confirmed that the BBC holds information of the type described in your request. However I explained that we considered that the exemptions in section 31 (law enforcement) and section 43 (commercial prejudice) were engaged in relation to multiple sections of the information you have requested and extended the deadline of the response, as permitted by the Act, to consider the public interest in disclosing versus withholding the information.

Having assessed the information and identified exempt information, I can confirm that I am withholding some information in these reports under sections 31(1)(a),(b),(d) and (g) and (2)(a) of the Act which relate to law enforcement; specifically, on the grounds that disclosure would, or would be likely to, prejudice the prevention or detection of crime, the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, the collection of the licence fee and the BBC's ability to discharge its public functions in respect of such matters. This is because it would provide information of use to those seeking to evade and/or assist others in evading paying the licence fee.

I am satisfied in terms of section 2(2) of the Act that in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information. I have considered the public interest test in the section on 'why information has been withheld' below.

Why information has been withheld

I am required under section 2(2) of the Act to assess whether the public interest in maintaining the exemptions outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information. At the outset, we would like to note that it is likely to be only in the most exceptional circumstances that it will be appropriate to prejudice the discharge of a legal duty.

The BBC accepts that there is always a public interest in transparency, accountability and public understanding in respect of TV Licensing's operations. In this particular case the following factors are in favour of disclosure:

1. ensuring that the licensing authority is exercising its functions appropriately and proportionately;
2. that public funds are being appropriately applied, and specifically that:
 - a. the TV Licensing system is being efficiently run; and
 - b. value for money is being obtained.

However, I consider that the above public interest factors in favour of disclosure are adequately addressed by the following:

1. The substantial amount of information which the BBC publishes about TV Licensing's operations in its Annual Report and Accounts; on TV Licensing's website (www.tvlicensing.co.uk); and in TV Licensing's Annual Review publications (www.tvlicensing.co.uk/about/our-performance-AB6); and in the National Audit Office's annual Licence Fee Settlement Statement released at the end of each financial year.
2. The BBC Trust is specifically tasked under Article 24(2)(m) of the BBC Charter with ensuring that the arrangements for the collection of the Licence Fee are efficient, appropriate and proportionate.
3. TV Licensing's functions are subject to external review through reports of the Comptroller and Auditor General to the House of Commons and directions given by the Treasury.
4. The BBC is required to satisfy the National Audit Office ('NAO') as to the value for money of the collection and enforcement arrangements and is accountable for the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of such arrangements. The NAO's most recent audit is published at www.nao.org.uk.
5. The BBC has reduced the cost of collection from 6.2% of the total licence fee collected in 1991/2, when it took over this responsibility from the Home Office, to 3% for the financial year 2015/16. This demonstrates that the TV Licensing system is being efficiently run.

In addition, the following factors are in favour of withholding the information:

1. The BBC has a duty to enforce the television licensing system and it is essential that opportunities are not provided to potential or actual evaders to escape detection or prosecution. There is a strong public interest in ensuring that information which prejudices law enforcement is not disclosed.
2. There is a strong public interest in the BBC being able to collect all the licence fee money to which it is entitled to enable the BBC to provide the public with services that encompass its public mission to inform, educate and entertain.
3. Part of keeping evasion to a minimum is maintaining uncertainty as to TV Licensing's enforcement practices. This uncertainty contributes to the deterrent effect which is an important part of TV Licensing's enforcement strategy¹.
4. There is a strong public interest in ensuring the voluntary compliance with the licence fee regime. Without an effective deterrent to licence fee evasion, evasion would invariably increase. This would be to the detriment of the honest majority of people who are properly licensed, and who should not have to pay any more than is strictly necessary to ensure the compliance of those who deliberately evade paying the licence fee.
5. An increase in the rate of licence fee evasion would lead to an increase in enforcement costs and may lead to more prosecutions. There is a strong public interest in ensuring that the BBC can keep enforcement costs to a minimum, because any increase in enforcement costs will lead to a decrease in the funds available for producing the BBC's content.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that the BBC has complied with the Act in responding to your request you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review under the Act and including your reference number. If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow SK9 5AF. Tel: 0303 123 1113 (local rate) or 01625 545 745 (national rate) or see <http://www.ico.gov.uk/>.

Kind regards

Rupinder Panesar

Freedom of Information Advisor, TV Licensing Management Team

¹ The Information Commissioner has acknowledged in his Decision Notice FS50476136 that there is a very strong public interest in the BBC being able to enforce the television licensing system and in not disclosing information which could impede the deterrent effect.
