Dear James,

Request for Information: Provision of Information

Thank you for your request for information, which we received 20 January 2020. Your request has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and our response can be found below.

We are not running Oracle or SAP ERP applications and the responses to the other questions are all no.

Copyright

The information supplied to you is Crown copyright, unless otherwise stated, and is protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research. Documents (except photographs or logos) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, will require permission. You can find details on the arrangements for re-using Crown copyright information at: <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/open-government-licence.htm>.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Complaints

Under the regulations I am required to point out that if you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint, you should write to
