Dear Caitlin Jordan

Subject: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email dated 26 December 2018 in which you made the following request:

“Please provide copies of documents related to sexual and racial discrimination within the video game sector and relevant companies.

Do you also have documents about whether or not video game companies have safeguards in place to prevent sexual harassment/discrimination and racism?”

Response

Following a search of our records we have located information which we consider to be captured by the first part of your request. The information we are able to disclose to you can be found alongside this letter.

We have determined that some of the information held, contained in a Legal Allocations Analysis spreadsheet from 2010, should be withheld under S31(1) (g) Law enforcement. An explanation of this exemption and how we have applied it, can be found in Appendix A.

Finally, for completeness we should advise that we hold no information in relation to the second part of your request.

We trust the above addresses your request to your satisfaction. However, if you are unhappy with our response and wish to request an internal review of our decision please write to the Corporate Correspondence Team within 40 days of receiving this letter setting out your reasons at:

During the independent review the handling of your information request will be reassessed by Commission staff afresh.

If following the review you are not content with the outcome you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Generally the ICO cannot provide a decision until you have exhausted the review process within the Equality and Human Rights Commission.

If the Commission can be of any further assistance please contact us using the details provided below.

Yours sincerely

EHRC Corporate Correspondence Team
