Dear Miss Ortega

Thank you for your FOI request dated 15 April 2014 relating to student disciplinary cases. The response from the University of Chichester is as follows:

1	In the past three years have you sought or successfully pursued any legal action, civil, disciplinary or criminal against participants in 'protests', such as occupations at the University. This could include (but it not limited to) injunctions against occupations or trespass cases?	No
	Please provide all documents relating to these cases. Details should include but not be limited to any affidavits, witness statements and other evidence given support of such an injunction.	Not applicable
2	How much money has the University spent (including but not limited to) on these cases? Please provide a breakdown by case and if possible costs, e.g. court fees, legal expenses etc.	£0 Not applicable
3	How many disciplinaries have you conducted against students for protest related offences in the last three years?	None
4	How many of the aforementioned disciplinaries against students have been upheld (where the student has been found 'guilty')?	Not applicable
5	Please provide copies of any injunctions relating to protest situations (including but not limited to occupations) which you have taken out in this time period.	Not applicable
