It apparent, your school promotes and teaches terrorism to its limits. All along, we were not fooled by the arrogance, stupidity and greed of the circus clowns that inhabit the bowels and the stench of your university.

Those miserable liars and con artist for the last 2 decades or more used their position to disseminate untold hardships on the every person on this globe through either higher taxes, higher food prices, poverty, hunger and pig-headed economic policies based on pseudo-science by Left fuck nuts who inhabit your sleazy school.

They lied, cheated and committed fraud and massive scam that is 10,000 times greater than Bernie Madoff debacle. For what? To control and have power over people. The UN ran with this flag because they saw it as an opportunity to tax every nation so they can have one world government.

If anyone of those perverted assholes ever steps within the boundaries of the U.S., they decimated. We have 2nd amendment rights here and you as a stupid Briton probably doesn't know what that means. We have a right to bear arms and these perverted assholes will be wasted. We will have plans for you as well. If you bring your family all the merrier.

You fuck prick! Britain needs to kill these scam artist.

Chaos has risen, Chaos has fed, Now chaos claws at the door to its cage and has broken the lock. Reap the whirlwind of the tempest that is chaos! simple fact about chaos that you failed to factor into your plot and plans, as the fact of the military axiom of no plan withstands contact with the enemy has always been true. chaos is in every facet of the reality we sentient live in, you and your project tried to selectively enforce stagnant order upon chaos and like water that has been frozen and expended...it has breached the seals of its container and it is now free to roam yet again...you failed to plan for this and you failed to accept and acknowledge the truth of chaos, it also seems you and your colleagues have set loose chaos upon the world there will be a backlash, you will be smeared and demonized to the world, if this is the infamy you sought you have done well. did you even consider the ramifications of your actions upon the lives of innocent people? there will be major social upheavals due to your actions, human nature is tied to chaos, all of humanity will react to this and it may well be deadly, you have aided the downfall of civilization for the next several hundred years, you are the barbarians that sacked europe, you are the visigoths that sundered rome...i hope it was worth the untold suffering you have set into motion. all of this is the truth of chaos and the truth of stagnant order...man is blind to these aspects and always fails to see the truth and its consequences...sadly its too late to do anything more than to admit defeat and accept punishment and try to save as many lives as possible by confessing to your activities, if you lie further to the world it will simply make it worse for you, but if you implicated those that pushed for this you may well redeem yourself in a small manner and actually save your hide from the masses...so stop being a total fucktard and step up and save your ass by throwing your self upon the mercy of the people of the world...prison for a few years is better than dying at the hands of a mob that will rip you apart. if you think your going to get away with this unscathed think again and do the research, you will find that you only have two choices 1; expose those responsible or 2; suicide. there is no real third option, if you fail to suicide those that backed this may have you killed to keep you quiet, and if you turn and beg mercy from the public for full disclosure you will be protected...you did this to yourself and frankly you will not have much beyond these two options...and most likely your not likely to get away clean beyond these two options...and in all likelihood those that backed you the power brokers are going in all essence will probably have you killed in some staged accident, or you will simply disappear much like Dr. Moshe...face facts they will kill you, and i definately mean THEY WILL...that as well is a facet of chaos...you really should have talked and consulted some chaos therorists concerning this before you started and formed a serious and effective backup strategy concerning what you were doing. so mister Jones i wouldhighly suggest that you stop the denying and turn to people like Alex Jones the radio host and set the record straight...if you don't your a bigger fool than you realize...intelligence does not equate to true wisdom, and seeing what you have caused your definitive aspect of personal wisdomis seriously lacking...but in essence all of this is merely words and phrases...thus simply advice, so take it or leave it its your call...maybe next time you start into a questionable situation you will factor in chaos to your plans and take effective and appropriate action to ensure this never happens again...but the irony of the situation dictates you won't learn from this...so enjoy the self inflicted wound you gave yourself in this mess...and let it be a reminder of the truepower of chaos. thank you for your time Chaos Deathwalker P.S. Just remember to smile when your masters ram the redhot poker up yer backside, its only proper to show your betters the appropriate manners as one of their slaves should...you have been played by the worlds elite enjoy the suffering they will inflict upon you.

I am writing to you to say that I have read a selection of your dodgy emails that were hacked from one of the UEA's CRU servers earlier this month. I've known that Green is Red all along, but I hope this little escapade will alert the general public to you liars, cheats, and manipulators. The real science doesn't work in your favour, so you just make it up, like the Marxists you are! You can't get rid of the Medieval Warm Period, and you can't hide the fact that the Earth has been cooling since 1998. You have no credibility - please, just crawl away and rot in a ditch somewhere (at least if you biodegrade naturally, it will be good for the planet!).
