Subject: RE: IPSA Internal Policies

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for your reply.

I think you may be referring here to the HMRC exemption limit of £25 for an encouragement award under a staff suggestion scheme (see link attached to EIM06620), or possibly to trivial benefits that arise from gifts given to staff in recognition of a particular event (see link attached to EIM21863). There is no actual exemption or de minimis limit for benefits that arise from rewards and recognition for services – these are taxable, and cannot be covered by a dispensation.

In view of this, IPSA can either submit forms P11D for each employee who received these benefits during 2010-11, or can arrange to pay the tax and NI due on these minor and irregular benefits by means of a PAYE Settlement Agreement (PSA). If IPSA decide to set up a PSA can you let me know as soon as possible, as this needs to be set up immediately to cover 2010-11.

If you need any help with this, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

Good to hear from you. Thank you for agreeing the dispensation for our GPC cards, that is good news. I look forward to receiving it in due course.

In regards to reward and recognition, we were actually seeking a dispensation for these too, rather than a PSA. I was under the impression that as they are limited to a maximum of £20 they would fall under the threshold for rewards?

Many thanks,

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks for sending these policies to me. I'm sorry for the delay in replying.

Taking each document separately:

Government Procurement Card (GPC) policy

I am satisfied that IPSA's guidance has in place safeguards against personal use of GPCs by staff, and will issue a dispensation covering genuine receipted business use of GPCs to you with a covering letter today.

Reward and Recognition policy

I have reviewed this document, and I can confirm that the rewards of gift vouchers, House of Commons merchandise and picnics/meals give rise to benefits in kind for the employees concerned. Will IPSA now want to set up a PAYE Settlement Agreement (PSA) to include these benefits to staff for 2010-11 onwards? Would you please let me know as soon as possible and I will arrange for the necessary paperwork to be issued to you.

If you need any further help, please feel free to contact me.

Thanks
