Dear Sir/Madam,

Freedom of Information Act 2000
Request for Information: Information Provided
Please quote our reference: E15700
Subject: Charges for Labour Party use of Newham Dockside

We write with regard to your recent enquiry for information held by the Council under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We trust that the information provided is satisfactory. You are free to use the information for your personal use only. Any other type of re-use, for example, publishing the information or issuing copies to the public will require permission of the copyright owner. If the Council is the copyright owner, a licence can be applied for under the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005.

For future reference we publish information on our website, including the Freedom of Information Publication Scheme and summary of Freedom of Information requests and responses that may be of help to you in searching for information. Our website is mentioned above.

It is important to note that under the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 the Council asks not to receive unsolicited marketing communication.

Request

How much did the Labour Party pay for the use of facilities at Newham Dockside for Ed Miliband's speech on social security reform on Thursday 6 June 2013?

Response

There was no charge levied for the space used at Newham Dockside for the speech by the Leader of the Labour Party on Thursday 6th June 2013. This is a non-chargeable public space within the building.

The cost for refreshments would be billed direct to the Labour Party by the contracted catering company.

If you require any further information or are not happy with our response please do not hesitate to contact a member of our team on (020) 8430 2000 or email us at information.governance@newham.gov.uk.

Yours sincerely,
