60+ London Concessionary Scheme

| Effective date: | 1 November 2012 |

Background

Following a change in government legislation the age of entitlement to a Freedom Pass, for both men and women, is rising in line with the state retirement age for women. From April 2010 the retirement age for women has been rising by one month, every two months. Hence the age of entitlement for a Freedom Pass is now at least 61.

To bridge the gap between 60 and the rising age of Freedom Pass entitlement, the Mayor pledged to introduce a concessionary travel scheme to Londoners aged 60 and over. The 60+ London scheme will be launched on 1 November 2012.

Eligibility criteria

Applicants are eligible for a 60+ London Oyster photocard if
