RE: In Confidence and Subject to Legal Professional Privilege

[REDACTED]

Thank you for our submission – apparently BNR has been chatting to Lord Arbuthnot in the Lords and promised him an update in May to prevent him raising it with the Secretary of State when he meets with Conservative Peers in May.

We will see if we can bring the update meeting forward from June to late April.

Kind regards

Hi [REDACTED]

I put a hard copy of the letter in BNR's weekend box and she had the following comments:

"I would like officials to advise on a reply / the need for a meeting. I would also like advice on when I should brief the Secretary of State. It's not definitive as I see it.

Kind regards

Please see attached letter for Baroness Neville-Rolfe from Post Office Chair Tim Parker regarding his investigation into the Horizon system. Please note that this letter is confidential and subject to legal professional privilege so please do not circulate further.

I believe this was sent to your office directly on Friday, but forwarding in case it went in hard copy only. Would you like a short covering submission from officials to go with the letter?

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

We discussed getting this correspondence to you directly, as it also works its way towards to you through the system.

As you are aware, the letter is subject to LPP and is also supplied in confidence. I would be grateful if you could ensure it is handled accordingly, and not forwarded electronically.

Best wishes
