

Information Assurance and Governance
Office of the Principal

17 August 2020

Dear Anna,

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002
Our Ref: 199-20

I refer to your enquiry received on 28 July 2020 asking to be supplied with the following information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("the FOISA") in relation to degree outcomes of undergraduate students graduating in the summer of 2020:

1. The percentage of those who obtained a first class/upper second/lower second/third class degree, broken down by degree subject.
2. The mean GPA for each degree subject.

Please find attached Appendix A for the information requested which is being provided to you in full.

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with the University's response and/or our reasoning set-out above, you have the right to request a review of our decision. The timelines in which this right is available are set out in section 20(5)(a) and (b) FOISA and regulation 16 of the EIRs. In broad terms the right to seek a review must be exercised within 40 working days of receiving this response.

The Information Assurance and Governance team are currently working remotely due to the Coronavirus pandemic. Any request for review at this time should be sent by email to foi@st-andrews.ac.uk stating:

- a) your name and address;
- b) details of your original request; and
- c) the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response.

If you remain dissatisfied with how your request for information has been dealt with following Review, you also have the right to apply to the Scottish Information Commissioner (SIC) for a decision. In the event of an appeal to the SIC, the Commissioner will generally only be able to investigate the matters raised in the request for review.

Details on how to make an appeal online to the SIC can be found on their website: <http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/YourRights/Unhappywiththeresponse/AppealingtoCommissioner.aspx>.

This concludes the University's response.

Yours sincerely

JUNE WEIR
