Dear Mr Gould,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Further to the issue of the University's responses to the above noted request and review, it has been brought to our attention that the following internal audit report was omitted in error from our response to question 3 detailed below. We apologise for any inconvenience this omission may have caused.

3. Please provide copies of the Head of Internal Audit's annual report for the years 2006-2014 as presented to the audit committee and SFC

Please find Internal Audit Update 2008/09 Annual Report dated 04 November 2009 attached.

The supply of documents under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 does not give the applicant or whoever receives the information any right to re-use it in such a way that might infringe the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (for example, by making multiple copies, publishing or otherwise distributing the information to other individuals and the public). The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Consequential Modifications) Order 2004 ensured that Section 50 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 ("CDPA") applies to the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("FOISA").

Breach of copyright law is an actionable offence and the University expressly reserves its rights and remedies available to it pursuant to the CDPA and common law. Further information on copyright is available at the following website:
