Sir Stephen House QPM
Chief Constable

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Please could you provide a breakdown of offences that were recorded to have taken place in the location the Underpass on the B7012, Main Street, High Blantyre, which goes under the roundabout under the A725 East Kilbride Expressway for the years 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015

Please breakdown the statistics by:

- (a) year
- (b) type of crime
- (c) Whether the suspect was an adult or a child (if known)
- (d) Whether the victim was an adult or a child

Please find below a link to the map showing the location of the Underpass in question for the avoidance of doubt.

In response to the foregoing, I can advise that a searched on GIS mapping (using a 200 metre radius from the centre point of the A725 where it meets the B7012) returned no crimes that related to the underpass.

Should you require any further assistance concerning this matter please contact me directly on 01786 895 863 quoting the reference number given.

If you are not satisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with, you are entitled in the first instance, and within 40 working days of receiving this response, to request a review of the decision. Should you wish to do so, contact details are; FOI Central Processing Unit, Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH - foi@scotland.pnn.police.uk

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. Contact details are; Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS - enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

Should you wish to appeal against the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew McCulloch
