Mr G Sobota
request-367662-43aae6cb@whatdotheyknow.com

3 November 2016

Dear Mr Sobota,

Thank you for your email through the 'whatdotheyknow' website on 26 October in which you requested the following information:

Please provide to me a copy of the Royal Logistic Corps Dress Regulations.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held. The information you requested is attached

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 2nd Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end. If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <https://ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

BAND OF THE ROYAL LOGISITIC CORPS

FULL DRESS

Serial (a)	Main Features (b)	Description (c)

Serial (a)	Main Features (b)	Description (c)
1.	OFFICERS Headress	Helmet: Universal pattern covered with blue cloth, with gilt metal fittings, as per 1934 Dress Regulations, Para 739; pointed front peak, with metal edging; a convex bar of gilt metal down centre of rear of helmet; squared back peak with narrow edging of patent leather or similar; on either side a rose boss with hook for curb-chain chinstrap (which extends from the nearside boss); ball ornament with its leaf cup screwed into metal cross-piece mounting which bears a rear hook (the alternative occasional fastening-point for free end of chin-chain); chinstrap of gilt curb-chain backed with patent leather and lined with black velvet. Helmet Plate: A crowned star plate generally as per 1934 Dress Regulations Para 740 (but with St. Edward's Crown), bearing crossed axes superimposed on the face, the centre bearing the devices of the Royal Logistic Corps.
2.	Tunic - officers	Blue cloth, with blue velvet collar and cuffs. The collar (not less than 2 nor more than 2½ in. high) ornamented with ¾ in. gold Staff pattern lace (No. 2 in 1900 Dress Regns.) along the top and ends, and gold round cord ¼ in. thick at the bottom, with an officer pattern collar badge of the RLC fixed with its centre 2 in. from each end of collar; the cuffs pointed, 2½ in. deep at the point and 1¾ in. deep at the back, and edged with gold round cord 5/16 in. thick closely traced each side with 3/16 in. gold Russia braid, the whole forming an Austrian knot at the point, the entire ornamentation extending to 8½ in. over all from the bottom of the sleeve. The cuff-knot on the left sleeve to be the mirror-image of that on the right sleeve. Eight gilt metal (or similar) RLC buttons of tunic size down the front, which invariably fastens (in the male fashion) with the buttonholes on wearer's left. Two similar buttons at the waist at the back (their centres normally not significantly more than approx. 4 in. apart), each located at the intersection of the waist-seam with the upper back-seams. Two slightly diverging pleats extend downwards from the waist-seam buttons to the bottom of the skirt (where they

		are normally approximately 5½ in. apart). A three-pointed slash (or flap), with a button (as described above) at each point, is located on the skirt just beyond each pleat, with the points extending inwards towards the pleat. The inward edge and the top and bottom edges of each slash are trimmed with gold round cord <sup>5</sup>/<sub>16</sub> in. thick. For skirts 12 in. deep, the slash will be 9½ in. high (including the cord trimming) and proportionally shorter for a shorter skirt. For longer skirts the slash will remain no higher than 9½ in. On the skirt the gap below the slash will be approx. double the gap above it. A vertical closing seam (a false vent), edged with blue cloth of a shade to match the velvet facings, is located midway between the two pleats. In addition, the tunic-fronts are also edged with similar blue cloth, the edging continuing round the very slightly rounded corners and along the entire lower edge of the skirt, all such edging showing not more than <sup>3</sup>/<sub>16</sub> in. wide. The skirt lined with black silk or similar. A gilt belt-hook in waist-seam on each side. Universal pattern shoulder-cords of triple gold round cord, twisted, lined with blue cloth and fastened at the top with a small RLC button (with screw fastening). The cords are supplied in pairs (i.e. a mirror-image design). Badges of rank of standard size in silver embroidery.
3.	Overalls	Blue cloth, with twin scarlet cloth stripes (each <sup>3</sup> / <sub>4</sub> in. wide with welted edges) set <sup>1</sup> / <sub>8</sub> in. apart down each side-seam, and with black leather foot-straps.
4.	Boots and spurs	Wellingtons (or George boots) with plain nickel-plated box-spurs of the standard swan-neck pattern
5.	Sword and Scabbard.	RLC Officer's pattern (the hilt having a three-bar guard), with nickel-plated scabbard. Sword knot. Gold and crimson cord with matching acorn and runner
6.	Waistbelt and Sword slings	Red morocco leather waistbelt 1½ in. wide (faced with gold lace of RASC/RAOC pattern [No. 74 in 1900 Dress Regulations] with central red silk train or stripe <sup>1</sup> / <sub>8</sub> in. wide) with rectangular matt gilt waistbelt plate of slightly convex cross-section in both directions ( bombé ) mounted with the RLC device in white metal. Sword slings of red morocco leather 1 in. wide, faced with gold lace to accord with that on the belt, the red stripe being $\frac{1}{16}$ in. wide ; gilt billet studs and squared gilt wire buckles slightly rounded at the corners. A hook on the eye of the front sling dee for hooking-up the sword. A running carriage at the top of the rear sling permits it to be moved along the belt (to be positioned between the waist buttons at back of tunic).

7.	Shoulder belt and Pouch	Black patent leather (or plastic) pouch (of collapsible pattern) approx. $6\frac{3}{4}$ in. long and $3\frac{3}{4}$ in. deep with gilt dees etc. for the belt and gilt fastening stud. Flap bears on centre of its outward face the Royal Cypher surmounted by the Crown all in gilt metal. Shoulder-belt of red morocco leather faced (except at edges) with gold lace 2 in. wide of RASC/RAOC pattern (see Para. 8 above) with central red silk train or stripe $\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide and bearing ornate gilt metal buckle, tip and slide of Corps pattern.
8.	Gloves	White cotton (or leather).
9.	BANDMASTER Helmet	As for officer.
10.	Tunic	As for Officer (See Para 3 above) except for rank insignia. None is worn on the shoulder-cords: instead, a Bandmaster's badge (in gold embroidery on blue cloth backing) is worn on right forearm above the Austrian knot, with the WO1's badge of rank (in gold embroidery on blue cloth backing), above the Bandmaster's badge.
11.	Other items	As for officers
12.	BAND SERGEANT MAJOR (WARRANT OFFICER CLASS 2) Helmet	Universal Pattern blue cloth, with simple gilt/gilding metal/brass fittings, basically much as for Officer (see Para 1 above) in design but with rounded front and back peaks, both edged with black plastic and without the convex gilt bar down the back. Chin-chain lined with black leather (no velvet).

		Helmet Plate: Design as for officer, the star plate in gilt/gilding metal or similar.
13.	Tunic	Blue cloth, with blue velvet collar and cuffs. The collar not less than 1¾ in. and not more than 2 in. high edged with ½ in. gold "bias &amp; stand" (Universal NCOs' pattern) lace along the top and ends, and trimmed with 3/16 in. gold Russia braid along the bottom, with metal collar badges of the RLC fixed with their centres 2 in. from each end of the collar; the cuffs pointed (with concave sides to the point), 3 ½ in. deep (excluding edging) at the point and 1½ in. deep at the back, and edged with gold round cord forming a trefoil at the point, the entire ornamentation extending to 6½ in. from the bottom of the sleeve. The outer end of the cord terminates in a downward curl adjoining the cuff vent which extends 4½ in. up the rear seam of the sleeve. The cuff-knot on the left sleeve is the mirror-image of that on the right sleeve. One medium size RLC button is set with its centre 2¼ inches above bottom of sleeve with a second similar button with its centre 1¼ inches above the first button. Nine gilt/brass/anodised RLC buttons of tunic size down the front, the lowest two not less than 1¾ in. clear apart from edge to edge. The front invariably fastens (in the male fashion) with the buttonholes on wearer's left. The skirt unlined (or lined with black cotton or similar fabric). In respect of the back, the arrangement of pleats, skirt-slashes, cord trimming, buttons and blue cloth edging to the false vent is exactly as described for officers in Para. 3 above. The front edges of the tunic are edged with similar blue cloth, all of a shade to match the velvet collar (all edging to be approx. 3/16 in. wide throughout). The edging stops at the lower corners of the skirt (the corners being cut perfectly square) and does not extend along lower edge. A brass belt-hook in waist-seam on each side. In lieu of shoulder-strap on each shoulder there is a closed loop of gold round cord fastened to a medium-size RLC button adjoining the collar. Badges of rank and appointment. On the right sleeve,

		placed above the ornamental trimming of the cuff, a Musician's badge (in gold embroidery on blue cloth backing) below a WO 2's rank-badge (also in gold embroidery on blue cloth backing).
14.	Overalls	Blue cloth, with twin scarlet cloth stripes (each $\frac{3}{4}$ in. wide with welted edges) set $\frac{1}{8}$ in. apart down each side seam, and with black leather foot-straps.
15.	Boots and Spurs	Black patent leather George boots with plain white metal swan-neck box-spurs of standard pattern.
16.	Sword	Sword, Warrant Officer, as issued, with nickel-plated scabbard. Alternatively, the RLC pattern sword with three-bar hilt is permitted if available.  Sword knot. White buff leather or matt plastic strap and acorn.
17.	Waistbelt and Sword slings	Heavy, solid, white matt plastic (to resemble whitened buff leather) fully $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide with gilt/gilding metal/brass snake-clasp. A large metal ring interrupts the belt at wearer's left side, retaining a sword-hook. Extending down from the ring is the short (front) sling, approx. 12 in. long. The long (rear) sling is attached around the belt (free to slide) and extends approx. 25 in. All metal furniture, including hook and adjustment-buckle, to be of brass or similar to match the clasp.
18.	Shoulder belt and Pouch	(As appropriate, if ordered to be worn). Black plastic pouch (pattern as for Household Cavalry R & F or a flatter version of the same pouch) with brass furniture. (The flap may be plain or a Corps device in metal may be adopted). Shoulder belt of heavy white matt plastic (to resemble whitened buff leather), or a substitute of similar appearance, $2\frac{1}{4}$ in. wide with plain gilt/gilding metal/brass furniture including buckle (single-prong, rectangular), tip and slide.
19.	Gloves	White cotton. (For certain specific duties white gauntlets or fingerless mitts may be worn in lieu).

Serial (a)	Main Features (b)	Description (c)
20.	DRUM MAJOR Uniform, Sword and Accoutrements	Exactly as for Warrant Officer Class 2 (see paras. 14 - 16 and 18 - 22 above) but with the following different or additional features:-
21.	Badge of appointment.	In lieu of the insignia described at para.17, the tunic bears on right forearm ½ in. above the ornamental trimming on the cuff, four full width (approx. 6 in. across) chevrons (point up) of lace similar to that on the collar with drum (in gold wire embroidery etc.) above, all on blue cloth backing. The chevrons may be located just ½ in. clear above the top of the cuff ornament or alternatively, when plain chevrons are involved, inserted so that the lowest two chevrons lie behind the top of the cuff knot. No rank insignia are worn on the upper arm.
22.	Drum Major's Embroidered Shoulder belt	(also known as the DM's Sash), Staff (also known as the Mace), (and optional Cane, if adopted). All of customary patterns, the embroidered belt of material to match the Corps facings (blue velvet or blue cloth) edged with gold lace (of Staff or RASC/RAOC or similar patterns with red train or stripe), trimmed with gold fringe at end, fitted with two token drumsticks and embellished with Royal Cypher and Crown, RLC insignia and title-scrolls etc. etc. in wire embroidery. To accommodate the sash, the Drum Major wears no shoulder belt and pouch.
23.	Gauntlets	White. These may (optionally) be worn when the full-length Staff (Mace) is carried; otherwise, or with the shorter Cane (if adopted), ordinary short white gloves are worn
24.	STAFF SERGEANT and SERGEANT Helmet and Helmet Plate.	As for WO 2
25.	Tunic	As for WO 2 except for the gold lace/braid trimming. Collar edged all round with gold Russia braid <sup>3</sup> / <sub>16</sub> in. wide. Cuffs of same height as in Para 16 and similarly trimmed but with gold Russia braid <sup>3</sup> / <sub>16</sub> in. wide. The skirt-slashes

		(or flaps) are trimmed with gold Russia braid $\frac{3}{16}$ in. wide in lieu of gold round cord. The cord loops on the shoulders are as for WO2
26.	Badges of rank and appointment (Band only).	Worn on right upper arm, all on blue cloth backing, as follows (all chevrons point down, extending approx. 6 in. from side to side): Staff Sergeant: Three chevrons of <math>\frac{1}{2}</math> in. gold Bias &amp; Stand lace, with the Musician's badge in gold embroidery above, and the gold-embroidered Crown above that. Sergeant: As for Staff Sergeant, but without the Staff Sergeant's crown.
27.	Overalls, Boots & Spurs, Gloves and Accoutrements	all as prescribed for WO2
28.	JNCOs, MUSICIANS and PRIVATES Uniform and Accoutrements	In all respects as prescribed for Staff Sergeant and Sergeant above except as detailed below:
29.	Tunic	In lieu of gold lace/cord/braid trimming, the collar is edged all round with cavalry yellow worsted braid $\frac{3}{16}$ in. wide; and the cuffs and skirt slashes are trimmed with cavalry yellow worsted square cord approx. $\frac{3}{16}$ in. thick; the loops on the shoulders are made of the same cord.
30.	Badges of rank and appointment (Band only)	Corporal: As for Sergeant (see Para. 31 above) but with two chevrons. Lance Corporal: As for Corporal, but with one chevron. Musician: Musician's badge in gold embroidery (without chevrons).
31.	Good Conduct Badges	as appropriate (if ordered to be worn) . Full width (i.e. approx. 6 in. across) chevrons (point up) of $\frac{1}{2}$ in. gold Bias

32.	Badges of rank and appointment (Corps of Drums only).	As for Band except that the Drum badge, in gold wire and coloured embroidery on blue cloth, will be worn by drummers in place of the Musician's badge. For Drum Major above.
33.	Dress Cords	(if ordered to be worn) may be worn only by drummers in the Corps of Drums. They match the cords fitted to the bugles. Royal pattern cords are used for both purposes i.e. red blue and yellow including the tassels. Dress Cords are not worn by the Drum Major nor the bass drummer.
34.	Drummers' aprons	Leg aprons for side (and tenor) drums were normally of whitened buff leather (with brass buckles to the three fastening-straps) but a version in suitable synthetic material or an equivalent made of appropriately coloured cloth are permitted. For the bass drum a synthetic animal skin is generally substituted for the whitened buff apron.
35.	Drum carriages	These will generally (and invariably in the case of the Corps of drums) be made of white matt plastic to match the waist belt or of whitened buff leather or a suitable substitute of similar appearance with gilt/gilding metal/brass furniture (i.e. buckle and ring etc.)
36.	Flute/fife case	These will be of the same materials (white plastic with brass furniture etc.) as the waist belt on which it is worn.
37.	Music pouch	This may be worn, when required, in place of the black ammunition pouch on the shoulder belt, in which case it is normally made of the same materials as the latter and is approx 7 in. high x 8 ½ in. wide x 2 in. thick; the flap has a scalloped shape to the lower edge and may be fitted with a Corps device in metal. Alternatively the simpler style of pouch with loop for attachment to the waist belt may be used. This is made of the same materials as the belt and has a plain flap.
38.	Cloaks	To be blue RHA pattern. Double breasted for officers and WO1s with normal rank insignia in gold wire embroidery, single breasted for remainder with rank insignia in yellow worsted (braid chevrons and machine-embroidered crowns as appropriate) to be worn on the right forearm (the chevrons normal way up).

39.	Capes	Dark blue cloth of length to cover the knuckles, fastened at the neck with hooks and eyes and with three RLC buttons of medium size down the front. For officer and WO1 the cape will be lined (the lining to match that of the cloak).
