Dear Mr Raffal

Thank you for your email of 6 October in which you seek clarification about the information provided to you by the Ministry of Defence (MOD) under the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000 on 5 October.

In your email you requested the following:

“Can you confirm that the only documents relating to the Be Part of the Story recruitment campaign the RAF hold, which are not reasonably accessible elsewhere, is the internal briefing, 8 August 2012, by the directorate of recruitment and training (DRIT) which you have provided at Annex A of your reply on 5 October 2017. If there are any other documents held which relate to the campaign, or which either measured or assessed the campaigns impact I would request you release these.”

I can confirm that, having conducted a search of the most likely areas within the MOD to hold recorded information relating to the “Be Part of the Story” campaign, no other documents have been located, other than that already provided to you.

If you wish to complain about the handling of your request, or the content of this response, you can request an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, Ground Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review should be made within 40 working days of the date of this response.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may raise your complaint directly to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not normally investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner’s Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner’s website at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely,

Air Command Secretariat
