

Information Assurance and Governance
Office of the Principal

9 January 2018

Dear Mr/Ms Johnson,

Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002
Our Ref: 347-17

I refer to your request for information received by the University on 8 December 2017 under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“the FOISA”). I confirm the University holds the information you have requested and that this is being released to you in full.

You have asked to be supplied with the information set out below for entry in academic years 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. Please note that:

- Prior to 2015/16 the number of students with Rest of UK fee status was restricted by the UK Government. This cap was lifted for entry in 2015/16.
- The number of places available to Undergraduate Home fee students is regulated and controlled by the Scottish Funding Council.

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with the University's response and/or our reasoning set-out above, you have the right to request a review of our decision. The time lines in which this right is available are set out in section 20(5)(a) and (b) FOISA. In broad terms the right to seek a review must be exercised within 40 working days of receiving this response.

Any request for review should be put in writing or some other permanent form e.g. an e-mail and should be sent to the University of St Andrews, through the contact details provided below.

A request for a Review should:

- a) state your name and address;
- b) describe the nature of your original request; and

c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response.
