Dear Siew Chwee Oh,

Your request was received on 17 February 2018 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

I would like to request the following information regarding admissions to the BA Law course (M100) for first-degree domestic (UK) and overseas (non-UK) students in the 2017/2018 admissions cycle:

Number of applications received, interview offers given, applicants pooled, direct offers made and winter pool offers made for the BA Law course (M100) in each college for 2018.

This information, while held, is due for future publication on the University's website in May 2018 at <https://www.undergraduate.study.cam.ac.uk/apply/statistics> and is therefore exempt under section 22(1) of the Act. As this is a qualified exemption, the University has considered whether, in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information. The University considers that, while there is an understandable general interest in admissions statistics, the extensive publication arrangements that are in place are sufficient to meet that interest.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should write to Dr Kirsty Allen, Head of the Registrary's Office, quoting the reference above, at The Old Schools, Trinity Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1TN or send an email marked for her attention to foi@admin.cam.ac.uk. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless
