2. Please provide, if possible, a breakdown by gender for each year.

Please refer to Table 2 above for the requested breakdown.

3. For each of the past ten academic years (2008-09 to 2018-19), how many University of St Andrews students have committed suicide while a student at the university?

The University is an educational institution and does not have the authority to determine/record/report the cause of death. This responsibility lies with the Procurator Fiscal's Office in Scotland and it is not something that the University is necessarily informed about. As such, the requested information does not form part of the records held by the University.

Advice and Assistance

The contact details for the Procurator Fiscal's Office in Dundee can be found at: <https://www.copfs.gov.uk/in-your-community/our-offices/office-details/?id=52> .

4. The university's rationale behind choosing to record or not to record student suicides.

The FOISA gives a right of access to recorded information held by a Scottish public authority. This does not extend to requiring the University to explain its operational practices where no information of relevance is held in a recorded format as in this case.

5. University policy regarding all actions the university take after a student commits suicide

The University is currently developing a framework for responding to a suicide in the University community in response to the Universities Suicide Safer guidance. For your information, details of this guidance can be found at: <https://www.universitiesuk.ac.uk/suicide-safer> .

Information/

Information not held

Section 17 of the FOISA requires that a Scottish public authority confirms in writing where information requested of it is not held and for the reasons provided at 3 and 4 above, notice is given to this effect.

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with the University's response and/or our reasoning set-out above, you have the right to request a review of our decision. The time lines in which this right is available are set out in section 20(5)(a) and (b) FOISA. In broad terms the right to seek a review must be exercised within 40 working days of receiving this response.

Any request for review should be put in writing or some other permanent form e.g. an e-mail and should be sent to the University of St Andrews, through the contact details provided below.

A request for a Review should:

- a) state your name and address;
- b) describe the nature of your original request; and
- c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response.
