Dear Mr Thompson

Your request for information

We refer to your email of 14 October 2019 in which you make a request for information. We have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) and this letter sets out our response.

Your request is as follows:

How many ex-police officers are currently employed by the IOPC in the following roles; Investigation Management of investigations
Assessing/deciding appeals, Management of appeals and Senior management/strategic roles.

Information relating to our Operations staff (casework and investigations) up to Operations Manager/Senior Investigator grade is contained in the PDF table we are disclosing with this letter.

Information about the career backgrounds of our Director General, Executive Team, Directors and non-executive Directors is available on our web site here.

We hope that you find this helpful. If you have any questions please contact us and remember to quote our reference number 1007943.

If you are not satisfied with this response you may request an internal review by an independent internal reviewer, who has had no involvement in dealing with your request. If you wish to complain about any aspect of this decision, please contact:

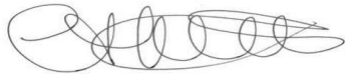

Reviewing Officer
Independent Office for Police Conduct
PO Box 473

Sale M33 0BW

All emails requesting a review should be sent directly to: dpo1@policeconduct.gov.uk

Should you remain dissatisfied after this internal review, you will have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner; however, we should point out that under section 50(2)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act, you are normally obliged to exhaust the public authority's internal complaint mechanism before complaining to the Information Commissioner.

Yours sincerely

pp
