Dear Navid Kouhi,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 28th October 2020 timed 12:09 hours, requesting the following information:

I would like to request for the statistics of 2020 entry BDS course:

- 1.Total number of international applicants
- 2.Number of international applicants offered an interview
- 3.Number of international applicants offered a place
- 4.Minimum and Maximum UCAT score of international applicants who were offered a place

University's Response

I would like to request for the statistics of 2020 entry BDS course:

1. Total number of international applicants

There were ninety (90) international applicants.

2. Number of international applicants offered an interview

Thirty-two (32) were offered an interview.

3. Number of international applicants offered a place

Twenty-one (21) were offered a place.

4. Minimum and Maximum UCAT score of international applicants who were offered a place

Minimum UCAT score was 2630, the maximum UCAT score was 2850.

The supply of documents under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 does not give the applicant or whoever receives the information any right to re-use it in such a way that might infringe the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (for example, by making multiple copies, publishing or otherwise distributing the information to other individuals and the public). The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Consequential Modifications) Order 2004 ensured that Section 50 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (“CDPA”) applies to the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”).

Breach of copyright law is an actionable offence and the University expressly reserves its rights and remedies available to it pursuant to the CDPA and common law. Further information on copyright is available at the following website:

Your right to seek a review

Should you be dissatisfied with the way in which the University has dealt with your request, you have the right to require us to review our actions and decisions. If you wish to request a review, please contact the University Deputy Secretary, University Court Office, Gilbert Scott Building, University of Glasgow, Glasgow, Scotland G12 8QQ or e-mail: foi@gla.ac.uk within 40 working days. Your request must be in a recordable format (letter, email, audio tape, etc). As the University of Glasgow is a Scottish Public Authority, your request is subject to the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”). The Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 provides for an extension to the normal timescale for response to FOI requests for review to 60 working days from receipt of a request. You will receive a full response to your request for review within 60 working days of its receipt.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which we have handled your request for review you may ask the Scottish Information Commissioner to review our decision. You must submit your complaint to the Commissioner within 6 months of receiving the response to review letter. The Commissioner’s Office may be contacted as follows:

Online Appeal Service:

Website: www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal

By post:

The Scottish Information Commissioner
Kinburn Castle
