

Information Rights

bbc.co.uk/foi bbc.co.uk/privacy

Nathan Gregory
request-716154-edda4200@whatdotheyknow.com

26 January 2021

Dear Nathan,

Freedom of Information Request - RF120210123

Thank you for your request to the BBC of 19 January 2021 seeking the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'):

With regard to the information already released under the following FOI request:
https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/correspondence_regarding_failed

Please provide copies of all communications, internal, external and all reports and other recorded information relating to the breach of this information - that are in addition or that was not previously disclosed in that request i.e. as there may be new information available since the original request date. The request extends to the same parameters as the referred to request i.e. "Please provide copies of all communications, internal, external and all reports and other recorded information relating to the breach of this information. I assume there has been some form of an investigation as to what happened and how, the impact of the release and potential mitigation against the impact of it, correspondence with third parties (perhaps Capita and WhatDoTheyKnow) and other such."

Under section 1(1) of the Act, we can confirm that the BBC does not hold this information.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied that we have complied with the Act in responding to your request, you have the right to an internal review by a BBC senior manager or legal adviser. Please contact us at the address above, explaining what you would like us to review and including your reference number. A request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of receiving the BBC's response to your original request.

If you are not satisfied with the internal review, you can appeal to the Information Commissioner. The contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF, Tel: 0303 123 1113 or see <https://ico.org.uk/>.

Yours sincerely

Information Rights
BBC Legal