Dear Amneet

I write in reply to your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, our reference number FOI 002/21.

I am required by the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to handle all requests in a manner that is blind to the identity of the requestor. Any information released in response to a request is regarded as being published and therefore in the public domain without caveat.

Please be advised that the Police and Crime Commissioner's office does not hold any information relating to numbers of hate crimes against disabled people registered in Hertfordshire in 2020 as requested in your correspondence. The remit of the Commissioner is to oversee the budget of Hertfordshire Constabulary and to hold the Chief Constable to account for the performance of the force. No information is held regarding operational police matters.

Please redirect your request to Hertfordshire Constabulary for any information they may hold on this subject. This can be done via the email foi@herts.pnn.police.uk.

If you disagree with the decision in respect of your freedom of information request or are otherwise unhappy with how the OPCC has dealt with your enquiry in the first instance you may request a review by Gavin Miles, Deputy Chief Executive at the office address at the foot of this response or by email at tesa@herts.pcc.pnn.gov.uk. If you would like to request an internal review, please reply within 2 months of the date above.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right of appeal under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely

Carolyn Kitchen
