Dear Mr Brew

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 210216013

Thank you for your request dated 16 February in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

My question is how dangerous are people with schizophrenia compared to the general population when it comes to serious crimes, in terms of percentages?

Your request is being handled under the FOIA.

The MoJ does not hold any information in the scope of your request. This is because the MoJ is not the policy holder on this subject.

You may wish to contact NHS England as they may hold some of the information you requested. Their contact details are:

NHS England
PO Box 16738
Redditch
B97 9PT

England.contactus@nhs.net

The FOIA does not oblige a public authority to create information to answer a request if the requested information is not held. The duty is to only provide the recorded information held.

Appeal Rights

If you are not satisfied with this response you have the right to request an internal review by responding in writing to one of the addresses below within two months of the date of this response.

Disclosure Team, Ministry of Justice,

You do have the right to ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to investigate any aspect of your complaint. However, please note that the ICO is likely to expect internal complaints procedures to have been exhausted before beginning their investigation.

Yours sincerely
