Dear Ariyan Hoque,

Your request was received on 28 March 2021 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

Could you please provide the data for all home undergraduate applications in the past 5 complete application cycles separated by state and independent schools for the Economics course:

1. The number of applicants, applicants interviewed and applicants given an offer separated by gender 2. The number of applicants, applicants interviewed and applicants given an offer separated by ethnicity

For the next two requests, please provide the average raw mark and average point-based score (if applicable where raw marks are converted and used in scoring system)

3. The average score on the admissions exam (separated by section if applicable) of all offer holders separated by gender 4. The average score on the admissions exam (separated by section if applicable) for each section of all offer holder separated by ethnicity

We refer you to our response to your request reference FOI-2021-278.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the University. The Information Commissioner may be contacted at: The
