Dear Z Liang,

Your request was received on 19 October 2022 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

Please could you provide the following information for each post-graduate course offered in 2020/2021, 2021/2022 and 2022/2023 (whether taught or research) :

- Title of the course
- Total number of applications to the course
- Total number of offers given for the course
- And, for each applicant to each course:-
 - * The last institution attended by the applicant
 - * The course taken at the institution

The requested information, insofar as it is held, is attached. Information for 2022/23 is not yet available. Note that the information about previous studies is provided by applicants in free text fields and there is accordingly considerable variation in terminology.

Please note that the attached document should not be copied, reproduced or used except in accordance with the law of copyright.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of this decision, you should contact us quoting the reference number above. The University would normally expect to receive your request for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this letter and reserves the right not to review a decision where there has been undue delay in raising a complaint. If you are not content with the outcome of your review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the
