Dear Luxmi Seelan

Freedom of Information Act 2000 – Information request (ref: FOI_18-053)

We have now considered your request of 23 February 2018 for the following information:

'Can you provide the following information regarding the A100 Medicine 5 year course and for 2017, 2016, 2015, 2014 intake years:

- 1. For each year, how many offers were given to students re-sitting A Levels (taking 3 years to complete A levels)?*
- 2. For each year, how many resit students were admitted onto the course?*
- 3. Were any students who didn't achieve an A* in their retake (instead getting an A) still admitted onto the course over the years? If so, how many?'*

Our response is provided in the table below:

Question		2014	2015	2016	2017
1	For each year, how many offers were given to students re-sitting A Levels (taking 3 years to complete A levels)?	19	18	22	45
2	For each year, how many resit students were admitted onto the course?	3	6	5	11
3	Were any students who didn't achieve an A* in their retake (instead getting an A) still admitted onto the course over the years? If so, how many?	0	2	0	3

We hope this information will meet your requirements, however if you are not satisfied you have the right of appeal. If you wish to appeal, please set out in writing your reasons for appealing and send to the above address. You must appeal within 60 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal received after that date will not be considered nor acknowledged. This policy has been reviewed and approved by the Information Commissioner's Office.

You also have a subsequent right of appeal to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further information is available on their website:
