Dear Stuart Lawson,

I refer to your Freedom of Information request received on 21/09/2019 about academic journal costs.

Details of any exemptions applied are below. Where any information is “not held”, this is explained below. Those parts of the University’s response (together with the details of how to ask the University to review the management of your request, or thereafter to seek a review by the Scottish Information Commissioner, should you wish to do so – please see below) constitutes the notice in writing that the information specified is not held by the University which is required under section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”).

Your enquiry and the University’s response.

Dear Abertay University,

For the years 2017, 2018, and 2019, please publish the total amount paid to each of the following publishers for academic journals:

Please see the following table, which details the total amount paid to each of the listed publishers for academic journals. All figures include VAT. Please note that the information is displayed in academic years.

This concludes the University’s response.

Your right to seek a review of how your information request was managed

If you are not satisfied with our response or our reasoning set out above, you have 40 working days in which to require a review of our decision. Any such request should be put in writing and should be sent to the University Secretary, Abertay University, at the address provided below. The request should:

- (a) detail your request for a review of our decision to be undertaken
- (b) describe the nature of your original request
- (c) explain the reasons why you are dissatisfied with our response
