Dear Zhongbowen Cui,

Re: Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 – Request for Information

Thank you for your email which was received by the University on 22 April 2019 timed 03:44 hours, requesting the following information:

I am requesting for the following information.

Please kindly provide data for 2016/2017, 2017/2018 and 2018/2019 admission cycles separately, for each of them.

- 1. List of all postgraduate taught courses for 2016/2017, 2017/2018, 2018/2019
- 2. Number of applicants
- 3. Number of offers made
- 4. Number of students enrolled

University's Response

Please find attached, Appendix A.

In the attached there are instances where there are students registered on a course where no offers were made. This is due to several factors; whether the admissions process is dealt with by the University of Glasgow, students transferring onto courses after registration and some students being 'Quick Admitted' where the usual admissions process is not relevant for a course.

The supply of documents under the terms of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 does not give the applicant or whoever receives the information any right to re-use it in such a way that might infringe the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (for example, by making multiple copies, publishing or otherwise distributing the information to other individuals and the public). The Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (Consequential Modifications) Order 2004 ensured that Section 50 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 ("CDPA") applies to the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 ("FOISA").
