Dear Mr Dimitroulopoulos,

Your request was received on 1 August 2018 and I am dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act').

You asked:

1) Please provide, for the 2017/18, 2016/2017 and 2015/2016 LLM admissions cycles, the median achieved grade averages for offerholders who completed undergraduate degrees at the following universities:

University of Oxford

University of Cambridge

London School of Economics and Political Science University College London King's College London Queen Mary, University of London

For the avoidance of uncertainty, 'achieved grades' are the ones present on an applicant's application form. They will have typically been achieved in the first two years, or three years, of an applicant's undergraduate studies. Please assume equal weighting if the value of the module is unknown.

2) Please provide, for the 2017/18, 2016/2017 and 2015/2016 LLM admissions cycles, the total number of applicants, the total number of offerholders, and the offer rate, for successful LLM applicants with undergraduate degrees from the following universities:

University of Oxford

University of Cambridge

London School of Economics and Political Science University College London King's College London Queen Mary, University of London

For instance, if 10 people who completed their undergraduate degree at Oxford applied to the LLM, and 7 received offers, this works out as an offer rate of 70% for Oxford University
