With regard to the spend with each agency, to obtain reliable data to answer this question, each invoice would have to be checked and I have been informed that this would take the request over the appropriate limit.

The appropriate limit has been specified in regulations and it is set at £450 for public authorities. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending 18 hours in determining whether the Departments hold the information, locating, retrieving and extracting the information. Under section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act the Department is not obliged to comply with your request and we will not be processing your request any further.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1998. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Information you receive which is not subject to crown copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non Crown Copyright) information.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request please do not hesitate to contact me and I will try to resolve the situation, alternatively should you wish to make a complaint you can write to:
