The Trust does not supply contact details of staff, such as names, email addresses and telephone numbers, unless these are routinely published on our website at www.mft.nhs.uk/contact-us. Such information is classed as personal identifiable information and, therefore, is considered exempt from disclosure under Section 40 of the Freedom of Information Act.

Please note that the individual identified on our website do not give permission for their personal data to be processed for direct marketing or sales purposes. Any requests to become a new/potential supplier should be directed to our Procurement and E-Commerce Department, as per the Guidance for Suppliers documentation available on our website at the following page www.cmft.nhs.uk/info-for-health-professionals/procurement-e-commerce-department.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1998. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and the purposes of news reporting. Any other reuse, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

If you are unhappy with the way your request has been handled you may ask for an internal review by writing to the FOI team at the above address. If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the review, you can then ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to make a decision. Generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have completed the Trust's internal review process.
