FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (SCOTLAND) ACT 2002

I refer to your recent request for information which has been handled in accordance with the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.

For ease of reference, your request is replicated below together with the response.

Please provide details of all notes, minutes, agendas and details/dates of meetings with Aberdeen Football Club relating to the development of a football stadium at Kingsford near Westhill. I am interested in the time frame from 1st August 2016 to date. This should include all advice, discussions and information relating to traffic management and policing activity in and around the proposed stadium and the local area.

In response to your request, I would advise that Police Scotland does not hold any information which meets the criteria of your request.

Therefore section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 applies: notice that information is not held.

Should you require any further assistance concerning this matter please contact Information Management – Highland & Islands Divisional Headquarters on 01463 720508 quoting the reference number given.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been dealt with, you are entitled in the first instance, and within 40 working days of receiving this response, to request a review of our actions and decisions.

Should you wish to do so, please contact us at the following address, stating what has caused your dissatisfaction and what you require us to review:

Information Management (Disclosure), Police Scotland, Clyde Gateway, 2 French Street, Dalmarnock, G40 4EH - foi@scotland.pnn.police.uk

If you remain dissatisfied following the outcome of that review, you are thereafter entitled to apply to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months for a decision. Contact details are; Office of the Scottish Information Commissioner, Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS - enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

Should you wish to appeal against the Scottish Information Commissioner's decision, there is an appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.
