Dear Ms Haddou,

Freedom of Information Request 19/01/154

I write in response to your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) received on 27 January 2019.

Please state the number of allegations of

- a) Rape*
- b) Sexual assault*
- c) Sexual harassment*
- d) Sexual misconduct:*

received by your force, where the location code of the offence was recorded as being a) a hospital and/or b) a GP surgery, in each of the last five calendar years: 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

2. For each of these allegations, please provide the incident date, location, brief details of allegations, whether a suspect was identified, whether a suspect was arrested, whether a suspect was charged, and whether a suspect was convicted.

Requested data is provided in the attached appendix. Please consider the information notices highlighted in red when analysing the data.

I apologise that this reaches you outside the twenty working day limit and thank you for your interest in Kent Police. If you have any queries about your request or the application of the Freedom of Information Act generally, please contact this office quoting the reference number above.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Crittenden
Public Disclosure Officer

Your right to appeal

We take our responsibilities under the Freedom of Information Act seriously but if you feel your request has not been properly handled or you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you have 40 working days from the date the response is issued to request that Kent Police carry out an internal review.

If your request for a review concerns the decision to apply an exemption, it would assist if you would outline why you believe the exemption does not apply.

Kent Police will acknowledge receipt of any request for a review and aim to respond as soon as practicable, in most cases within 20 working days of receipt. If the review will not be completed in this timescale, you will be informed.

You may lodge your request for a review in writing:

Our email address is: freedomofinformation@kent.pnn.police.uk

Our postal address is:

Freedom of Information Team
Kent Police Headquarters
Sutton Road,
Maidstone
Kent
ME15 9BZ

If you are still dissatisfied following our internal review, you have the right under section 50 of the Act to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner who would normally expect you to have exhausted the internal review procedure provided by Kent Police.

For information on how to appeal to the Information Commissioner please visit the website at www.ico.org.uk. Alternatively, phone or write to:
