

Sunderland City Council

Public Information – Conditions of Re-use Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004

All rights relating to material supplied, unless otherwise indicated, are reserved by the City of Sunderland.

All intellectual property rights (including without limitation, copyright and design rights) in the content and design of the material are the property of Sunderland City Council. Material supplied is protected by copyright. The copyright owner is the City of Sunderland unless expressly stated.

Permission to use, reproduce, copy and distribute the material, documents and related graphics supplied with this notice is granted, provided that:

- The source and copyright status of the material is acknowledged (e.g. the copyright notice appears on all copies and that both the copyright notice and this permission notice appears)
- The use of the material is confined to use for informational, personal and non-commercial purposes only
- The material reproduced is not modified in any way
- No graphics supplied are used, copied, or distributed, separately from the accompanying text
- The material is reproduced accurately, is not used in a derogatory manner or in a misleading context

The permission to reproduce material set out above does not extend to any material which is identified as being copyright of a third party. Authorisation to reproduce such material must be obtained from the copyright holder.

Any proposed use of the material, other than that permitted above, is subject to the approval of Sunderland City Council.

Application should be made, either in writing to:

The Information Manager, PO Box 100, Civic Centre, Sunderland , SR2 7DN, or via e-mail to:

xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx@xxxxxxxxxxx.xxx.xx

The application should be made in writing, and:

- Provide the name of the applicant and an address for correspondence
- Specify the material requested
- State the purposes for which the material is proposed to be re-used

The Council's response to the application will be provided within 20 working days