Freedom of Information Act 2000

Dear Amelia Brown

We can confirm that the information requested is held by Birmingham City Council.

Request

May I have a copy of your latest annual strategic assessment of crime and disorder for Birmingham please.

Response

The strategic assessment for crime and disorder is produced by the Birmingham Community Safety Partnership (BCSP) on an annual basis. The BCSP is a multi-agency partnership consisting of statutory partners such as West Midlands Police; Birmingham City Council; West Midlands Fire Service; Birmingham and Solihull Clinical Commissioning Group; National Probation Service and Community Rehabilitation Company, and Birmingham Childrens Trust.

Its role is to enable partners at a strategic and operational level to understand how they should work together to address crime and disorder, and deliver services and activities to achieve this – this is part of all partners responsibilities under Crime and Disorder Act 1997. These services may be Birmingham wide to just in one street. The BCSP is hosted by Birmingham City Council, which means we are the secretariat for the partnership.
