FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 137/19 & 138/19

Thank you for your request for information regarding UK Marxist Antifa Groups which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

137/19

Dear International Policing Assistance Board,

Any information regarded, as a security threat to the UK of the activities of UK Marxist Antifa groups

138/19

Dear National Police Chiefs' Council,

Any information regarded, as a security threat to the UK of the activities of UK Marxist Antifa groups and the cost of policing protests by such group / movement.

NPCC Response:

The NPCC does not hold information captured by your request.

For your information, the International Policing Assistance Board (IPAB) no longer exists. The NPCC International Coordination Committee oversees and coordinates the assistance that UK policing gives to other countries, both at home and abroad. The International Coordination Committee launched the Joint International Policing Hub (JIPH) in partnership with HM Government, the National Crime Agency, the College of Policing, the National Police Coordination Centre, the National CT network and others. This is the single, recognised gateway into and out of UK international policing assistance structures for domestic and global partners. The NPCC answers all FOI requests to the JIPH. It is for this reason that I have aggregated both of your requests for cost purposes.

Yours sincerely
