Dear Ella Wilson,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is not held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 27 July 2021 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

Under the Freedom of Information Act I request that you provide me with the following data on applicants and offer holders for the Politics, Philosophy and Law (LM21) course for the 2021 admissions cycle:

- 1) The LNAT multiple choice scores for all offer holders*
- 2) The LNAT multiple choice scores for all applicants*
- 3) The International Baccalaureate (IB) predicted grades for all offer holders taking this qualification*
- 4) The IB predicted grades for all applicants taking this qualification*
- 5) The IB achieved grades for all offer holders who applied with achieved grades*
- 6) The IB achieved grades for all applicants who applied with achieved grades*

Our response

The requested information is not held as the current cycle is still ongoing and the data has not yet been aggregated.

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:

The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
