27th October 2020

Dear Mr Navartne,

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request – 201016024

Thank you for your request dated 16th October 2020 in which you asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

“Dear Her Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service,

Please provide the following info:

1) Appeal reference of applications submitted in relation to section 166 of the Data Protection Act 2018.

2) Indication if each application in (1) was within time or out of time.

3) If out of time, and where the application was admitted by the Tribunal, specify whether a request for an extension of time :

a) was requested by applicant, or

b) was considered by the Tribunal without a specific request by the applicant.

4) For all applications in (1), indicate if each application was:

a) admitted

b) dismissed (thrown out) quoting rule 22(6)(f) which states:

"An appellant must start proceedings before the Tribunal by sending or delivering to the Tribunal a notice of appeal so that it is received....

in the case of an application under section 166(2) of the Data Protection Act 2018 (orders to progress complaints), within 28 days of the expiry of six months from the date on which the Commissioner received the complaint.”.”

Your request is being handled under the FOIA.

The MoJ is required under section 10(1) of the FOIA to provide you with a response within 20 working days. Therefore, we aim to provide you a response to your request by 13th November 2020. However, in view of the current public health situation, and its possible effect on resources and priorities, we may not be able to reply to you by this date; if this will be the case we will write to you nearer the time with an update.

Yours sincerely
