Dear Ms Begum,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 11 April 2018 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

- 1) What is the number of students who joined the adult nursing course in September 2017*
- 2) The number of places that were available for the adult nursing course, starting September 2017*
- 3) How many students have dropped out or been removed (Failed), since starting the adult nursing course in September 2017*

Our response

1. 303 students enrolled on the programme
2. the targeted intake for the programme was 304
3. 18

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service, you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.
