

Healthy connections at Town Hall

PEOPLE in Coleraine took part in a quiz and mulled over some health and social care topics at The Patient and Client Council's Coffee Connection event at Coleraine Town Hall in the Diamond on Saturday, November 5.

People who called in were able to share their views on health and social care services in Northern Ireland over a cup of tea or coffee and a sticky bun.

The Coffee Connection event was hosted by the Patient and Client Council - a Health and Social Care organisation that has a key role in helping people to have their say about Northern Ireland's health service.

The session at Coleraine Town Hall was one of 18 Coffee Connection events being held across Northern Ireland throughout October and November.
