Dear Ranjan Balakumaran

RE: YOUR REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: 826038

I am writing further to your request for information dated 20 August 2017 and should like to take this opportunity to apologise for the late response. We have now completed our search for the information you requested.

Your request:

I am writing to request a copy of all email communications between the council and i) police or ii) security (I assume this will be VPS) in relation to the squatting at the Aylesbury estate for the dates 10 - 20 February 2015.

In the event that this request would exceed the appropriate cost limit, please limit its scope to 17-18 February 2015.

Our response:

Southwark Council can confirm that the information you have requested is not held as Aylesbury was not squatted.

This information is being provided as a statutory obligation under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Please note that under the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 Southwark Council ask not to receive unsolicited marketing communications.

You are free to use the information provided for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, requires the permission of the copyright holder. You may apply for permission to re-use this information by submitting a request to accessinfo@southwark.gov.uk; you can find details on these arrangements at <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/information-management/re-using-public-sector-information/copyright-and-re-use/>. Detailed advice about the Reuse of Public Sector Information Regulations (PSI) 2005 is available from the Office of Public Sector Information at: <http://www.opsi.gov.uk/advice/index.htm>

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make an appeal for a review of our decision, please write to accessinfo@southwark.gov.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of your appeal, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted our internal appeal procedure and you should contact her within 2 months of the outcome of your internal appeal.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act is available through the Information Commissioner at www.ico.org.uk

Yours sincerely
