Dear Mr Staveley,

Thank you for your email of 2 December 2014, in which you asked for the following information from Her Majesty's Courts and Tribunals Service (HMCTS):

"I would be grateful if you could provide a copy of the High Court injunction against "car cruising" in the combined local authority area "known generally as the Black Country" that is referred to on the West Midlands Police website (<http://www.west-midlands.police.uk/latest-news/news.aspx?id=1875>) & the BBC News website (<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-england-birmingham-30285191>) and a copy of any judgements of the court that were issued in the proceedings that lead to the granting of the injunction"

Your request has been passed to me because I have responsibility for answering requests relating to the Midlands Region.

Your request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Under the Act, the department is required to provide you with a response within 20 working days. I will write to you in response to your request for information by 2 January 2015.

The Freedom of Information Act includes a number of exemptions to releasing information. Some of these are qualified exemptions which require us to consider whether it is in the public interest to disclose or withhold the information. In these circumstances we may need more time to consider your request, and if this is the case I will write to you by the date above to inform you of when you can expect to receive a response.

If you have any queries regarding this request please do not hesitate to contact me, quoting ref: FOI/94774 in all future correspondence.

Yours sincerely
