Dear Mr Smith,

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Thank you for your email which was received on 6 July 2019 by the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner. Within your email you request information which is to be dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act.

I note you seek the following information:

- Who is your current Body Worn Video Supplier
- Which procurement route was used (e.g. was a framework used?)
- How many devices do you have and how much has been spent since 2015
- When does your current contract expire?
- Which procurement route will you use for the replacement contract?

I can advise that the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner does not hold the information you seek. The Police and Crime Commissioner does not have any statutory authority to become involved or intervene with regards to operational policing matters and he does not have access to such information.

Cumbria Constabulary may hold the information you have requested and you can contact them at:

Freedom of Information
Professional Standards Department
Police Headquarters
Carleton Hall, Penrith
Cumbria, CA10 2AU
Or alternatively e-mail: freedomofinformation@cumbria.police.uk

Whilst every care has been taken in the retrieval of the information provided, please do not hesitate to contact us for clarification, if you have any issues or queries.

Complaint Rights

Your attention is drawn to the attached sheet, which details your right of complaint.

If you have any further queries regarding this matter please do not hesitate to contact me again. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your interest in Cumbria Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner.

Yours sincerely

Lisa Hodgson

Governance Officer
Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000
COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Are you unhappy with how your request has been handled or do you think the decision is incorrect?

You have the right to require Cumbria Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner to review their decision. Prior to lodging a formal complaint you are welcome and encouraged to discuss the decision with the case officer that dealt with your request.

Ask to have the decision looked at again –

The quickest and easiest way to have the decision looked at again is to telephone the case officer that is nominated at the end of your decision letter. That person will be able to discuss the decision, explain any issues and assist with any problems.

Complaint

If you are dissatisfied with the handling procedures or the decision of Cumbria Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act) regarding access to information you can lodge a complaint with the Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner to have the decision reviewed.

Complaints should be made in writing and addressed to:

Freedom of Information Appeals
Cumbria Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner
Carleton hall
Penrith
Cumbria
CA10 2AU

In all possible circumstances Cumbria Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner will aim to respond to your complaint as soon as possible, and in any case within 2 months.

The Information Commissioner

If, after lodging a complaint with Cumbria Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner, you are still dissatisfied with the decision you may make application to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

For information on how to make application to the Information Commissioner please visit their website at www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk. Alternatively, phone or write to:
