Dear Tim McCormack,

Freedom of Information Request – FOI2023/00543

We are writing in response to your email received by Post Office Limited (“Post Office”) on 17 September, which has been dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“FOIA”).

In your email you have requested the information shown in bold below:

“Please tell me the date that bonus payments were made to Nick Read for the financial year 22/23. You previously informed me that bonus payments for 21/22 were made on 31/3/22.

Please tell me how much of those bonus payments he has since repaid.”

We note that this request is identical to the one you submitted in late August which was replied to on 21 September 2023. You clarified in your response to that email that you are specifically interested in bonus payments made for the Financial Year (FY) 22/23 but as we made in clear in our response, to date, no payments have been made for FY22/23.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of this response, you do have a right to request an internal review. You can do this by writing to the address above within 40 working days of receipt of this response stating your reasons for your internal review request or alternatively, by emailing information.rights@postoffice.co.uk.

If, having requested an internal review by Post Office, you are still not satisfied with our response you also have a right of appeal to the Information Commissioner at:

Information Commissioner's Office
