5th December 2019

Dear Mr Nigel,

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act")

Further to your recent request for information held by King's College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 2nd December 2019 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

For BSc Business Management exam results, the statistics that are readily available for each module. These include the average, highest mark, and percentage per classification (Firsts, 2As, 2Bs, Thirds, Fails)

Our response

Please see Annex A. The spreadsheet has two tabs:

- A tab of module statistics for modules taken by Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Business Management students from 2014/5 to 2016/7. The module statistics provided are minimum mark, maximum mark, average mark and standard deviation. Where less than 5 students sat the module on a specific year, no data has been provided.
- A tab of degree classification data for students for this same course from 2014/5 to 2016/7.

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:
