

Bus Fares changes

From 04:30 on 2 January 2011

The cash fare will increase to £2.20

The Oyster pay as you go fare will be £1.30 (65p for holders of 16+, New Deal and Bus & Tram Discount Oyster photocard)

One day's Pay As You Go travel on buses will be 'capped' at £4.00 (£2.00 for holders of 16+, New Deal and Bus & Tram Discount Oyster photocard)

The prices of Bus and Tram Passes, and Travelcards, will change

If you sign-on your module before 04:30 on 2 January 2011, the old fares will still be shown on the ticket machine, and must continue to be charged for the whole of your duty.

Make sure you get a new fare chart for the route(s) you work on.

For more information on fares and tickets, please visit tfl.gov.uk/tickets

A quick guide to tickets and passes accepted on London's buses from 2 January 2011

Single journey tickets £2.20 per ride

Oyster pay as you go £1.30 per ride (65p per ride for discount photocard holders);
'cap' for bus travel in one day is £4.00 (£2.00 for discount photocard holders)

Saver tickets no longer on public sale but must still be accepted

Bus & Tram Passes

One Day: No longer on public sale but must be accepted if valid

7 Day:	£17.80	} Lower prices are available for discount photocard holders
Monthly:	£68.40
Annual:	£712.00

Travelcards

One Day, 7 Day, and longer periods (up to one year)	} Prices vary according to zones bought for rail travel; all Travelcards are valid on all buses
---	---

Under-11s - travel free and do not need to show any ticket or pass

11-15 'Zip' Oyster photocard free travel at all times

16+ 'Zip' Oyster photocard free or half-rate travel at all times

Bearer Passes – free travel, if shown as valid on buses

Freedom Passes and English National Concessionary Passes free travel at all times
English National Concessionary Passes marked 'C' or 'C+' do not allow free travel for companions on any journey starting within Greater London. Check the fare chart for validity outside Greater London

Wheelchair users do not need to show a pass. Companions must show a pass or pay a fare

Guide Dogs for the Blind Puppy Walkers if accompanied by a Guide Dog

Parking/Council Attendant Passes if on duty and in full uniform

Police Warrant and Staff (PCSO) Cards

Staff, Bus Operator, Nominee and Retired Staff Oyster cards with the correct photocard