Dear Sir / Madam

Freedom of Information Act 2000

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Request and response

Dear Lambeth Borough Council,

The statutory guidance to local authorities requires periodic reviews to be carried out to aim for continuous improvement in compliance. Given the ongoing extraordinarily high number of contraventions and PCNs issued at the Clapham Park Road bus lane (leading to the junction with Abbeville Road) and the fact that adjudicators have upheld appeals on the grounds that the signage is confusing, can you please provide information on any such reviews carried out between 1 Jan 2016 and 10 April 2024 to include the following:

1. Whether all concerns on the signage raised by adjudicators who upheld appeals were taken into consideration.

Not applicable - the guidance referred to is for Outside London. All lines and signs at this bus lane are compliant.

2. Whether recommendations for improvements made by adjudicators were taken into consideration.

Not applicable - the guidance referred to is for Outside London. All lines and signs at this bus lane are compliant.

3. Whether the guidance in the extract below was followed.

Not applicable - the guidance referred to is for Outside London. All lines and signs at this bus lane are compliant.

4. The outcome of any such reviews.

Not applicable - the guidance referred to is for Outside London. All lines and signs at this bus lane are compliant.
