Date: 9 February 2015

Dear Mr Davis,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request received on 29 January 2015. You asked:-

I am writing to request an internal review of Department for Work and Pensions's handling of my FOI request 'Can a JSA Workcoach force a JSA Claimant to provide written / printed evidence of any roles that they have applied for?'

The question/s have not been answered - they have not even been attempted to be answered.

A full history of my FOI request and all correspondence is available on the Internet at this address:

https://www.whatdotheyknow.com/request/can_a_jsa_workcoach_force_a_jsa

Response:

We have provided two previous reviews on this topic (IR10 and IR35) which upheld our original response to you as correct. The position of DWP has not changed in the interim period.

DWP considers that you have now exhausted the review process and we will not respond to further requests for review with regard to FOI 5215.

As you have obtained internal review decisions from DWP with regard to FOI 5215, the next stage in the process is for you to refer your complaint to the Information Commissioner. You can find details on how to do this at the bottom of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

DWP Central Fol Team

Your right to complain under the Freedom of Information Act

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office for a decision. Generally the Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted our own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow Cheshire SK9 5AF
