Dear Gordon,

Bob Jack has asked Janice Hewitt to respond on his behalf as she was deputising at the time the decision was made. Janice Hewitt is out of the office today but has asked me to relay that she is happy with the response.

Best regards,

Sorry to bother you, we have been asked a parliamentary question in relation to what police powers are to stop a bonspiel and we intend to provide the attached response, with some additional information for clarification around what we believe the decision process was. In this response we briefly refer to other agencies / services including Stirling Council and CSF&RS, these are primarily included under bullet points 4 and 5. Before I send this off (they are looking for a response today) I wanted to ensure that you were satisfied with these references and that this was an accurate reflection. Could I ask you to please confirm with me that you are satisfied with this or otherwise asap so that I can send off.

Thanks
Gordon
